

iMovie for the iPad

Along the bottom of the screen is a row of icons.

The + button allows you to create a new project or a new trailer.

The play button will play whatever movie you have selected.

The share button will provide a list of share options, like email, upload to Facebook, etc.

The save button will let you select places to save the movie.

Your storyboard area will look like this image.

You can go to your library of audio, photo, and video from this button.

The button with the star will take you back to your project library.

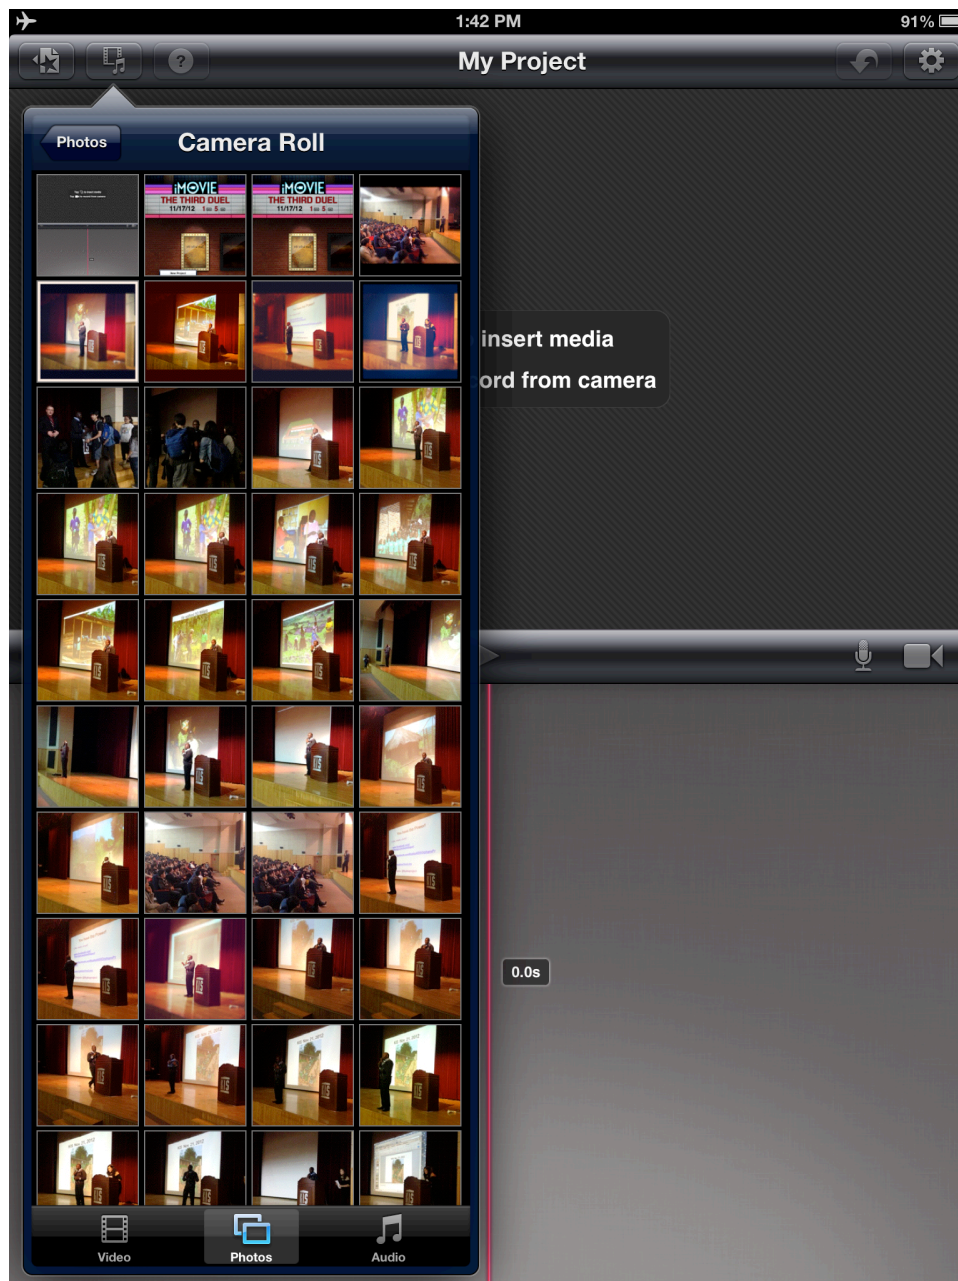

This video record button will allow you to record directly into your video

You can select the microphone button to do voice overs.

The play button will play your movie as it currently appears.

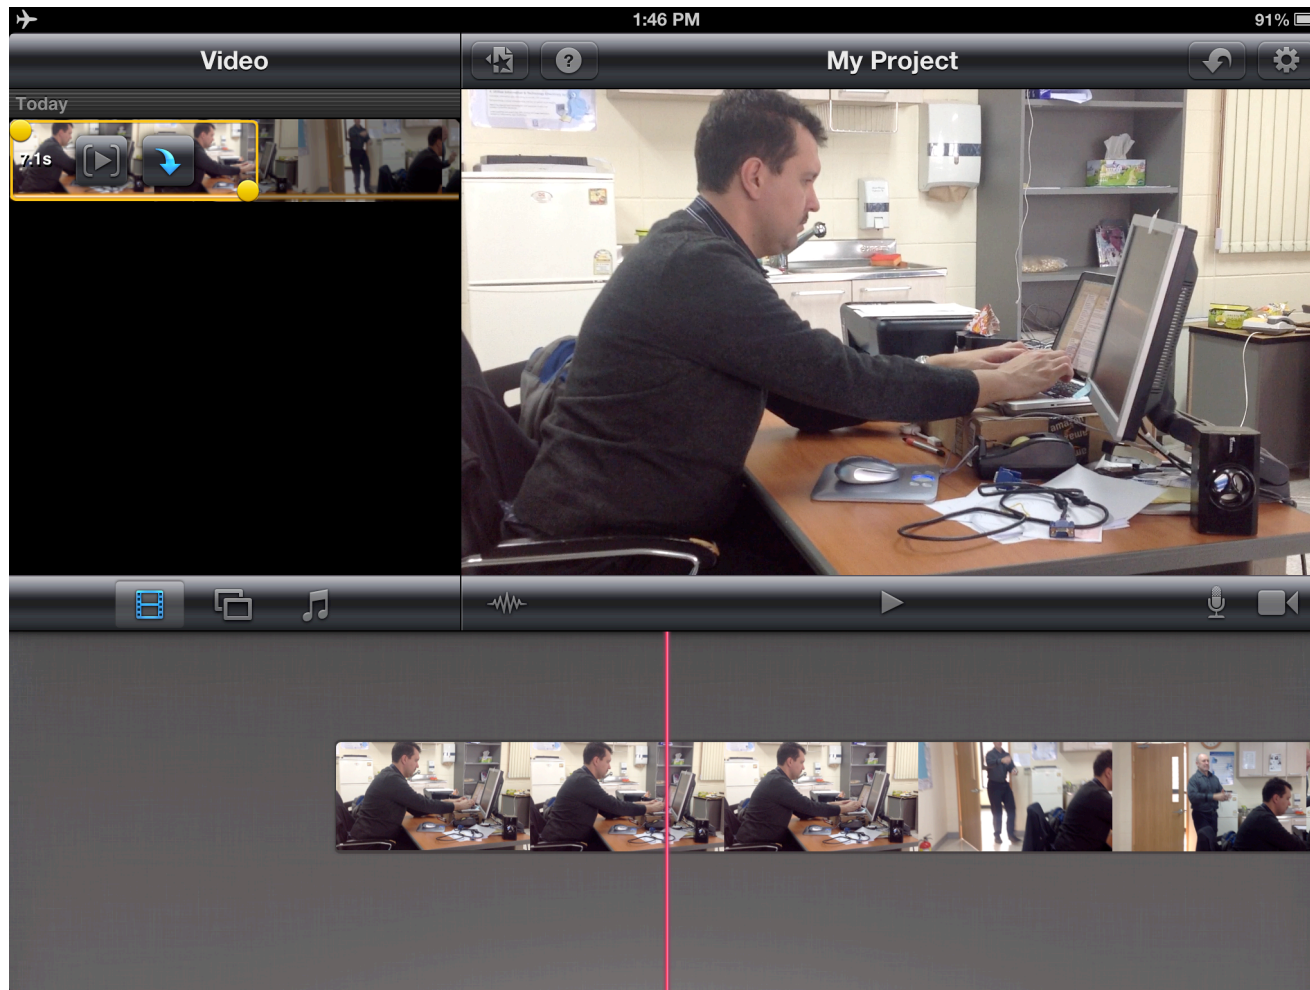

The sound wave button will display the sound in a visual format under the video clips.

Your audio, photo, and video library will appear and you can choose the items and drag them to your storyboard.

Selecting clips of video and drag them down to the storyboard.

If all else fails, you can always click on the help button.
#justsaying